

Watco Transportation Services Announcement

Date: October 8, 2009
To: Watco Team
From: John Brown, Chief Operating Officer, West Region
Subject: Carl Legg, Eastern Idaho Railroad Marketing Manager

I am pleased to announce that Carl G. Legg has accepted the position of Marketing Manager for the Eastern Idaho Railroad. Carl brings with him over 26 years of successful marketing and managerial experience. He has an extensive background in the agriculture and service industries which will be an asset to both the railroad and our Customers.

Carl served in the United States Navy and was deployed to Yokosuka, Japan. After leaving the Navy, Carl and his wife purchased a refrigeration company which they owned and operated for 16 years. Carl has developed and marketed businesses from business plan creation to start up to implementation, including patents which he personally developed. As a consultant, he successfully completed the turnaround of a dairy service and supply company, ultimately negotiating the sale of the same to an international dairy service and supply company. After obtaining marketing rights to global equipment lines, Carl started another dairy and agriculture industry business which he operated for 8 years as the sole principal.

Carl and his wife Diane have been lifelong Idaho residents and are active in their church and participate in many volunteer activities. They have four grown children Christopher, 28; Rebecca, 27; Matthew, 24 and Andrew, 20. In his spare time, Carl enjoys spending time with his family, running, mountain biking, and officiating high school soccer and basketball.

Carl will be based out of our Twin Falls office, and can be reached directly at (208) 734-4644 ext. 1125, by cell phone at 208-961-1936 or by e-mail at clegg@watcocompanies.com.

Please join me in wishing Carl every success in his new position with the Eastern Idaho Railroad.
