

Watco Companies, Inc. Announcement

Date: November 5, 2010

To: Watco Team

From: Sam Ricci, Director of Transload Operations

Subject: Adam Hanson, General Manager Pittsburg Warehouse

I am pleased to announce that Adam Hanson has been named the new General Manager of the Pittsburg, Kan., warehouse. Adam will be responsible for managing internal and external warehouse customers along with inbound and outbound inventory. He will also be supervising the Pittsburg fleet drivers and trucks.

Adam started at Watco in August 2005 in a part-time position as he attended Pittsburg State University. He is currently in the last quarter of his education and will graduate in December with a degree in business management.

Adam was recently married on September 18, 2010 to another Watco Team Member, Sara Polchlopek, Senior Accountant for the Gulf Region Railroads and Services. Adam and Sara enjoy spending time with their three dogs. He also enjoys playing golf and participating in other outdoor activities.

Adam will be working from the Pittsburg warehouse, and growing the business. He can be reached on his cell 417-846-3500 or by e-mail at ahanson@watcocompanies.com

Please join me in congratulating Adam on his new Position.
