To: Watco Team
From: Jim Griffiths, Watco WA Rail, Chief Operating Officer
Subject: Carol Thompson-Billowes, Human Resources Manager

I am pleased to announce that Carol Thompson-Billowes has started with us as our Human Resources Manager. Carol will be responsible for planning, and coordinating human resources management activities, learning and development and workplace relations activities

Carol brings with her a wealth of international human resources and training and development experience. She began her career in human resources and learning and development in South Africa in Nedbank, a finance company. She then moved to Canada in 1990 staying within HR she worked in the retail sector for 10 years opening new stores across Canada for Sportmart. Moving back to South Africa (for a little more sunshine) she worked for Makro, a retail company as their training and development manager. Moving to the UK for five years and working in manufacturing and the scrap metal industry she then moved to New Zealand staying within manufacturing. Since moving to Perth, Australia, she has worked for BP and CBH as a contractor.

Carol and her husband have two sons, dogs and cats. In her spare time she enjoys sea kayaking, jogging and swimming.
