Date: October 28, 2011
To: Watco Team
From: Jim Griffiths, Watco WA Rail, Chief Operating Officer
Subject: Dean Wilson, Watco WA Rail, Customer Service Logistics Manager

I am pleased to announce that Dean Wilson has joined the Watco Western Australia Rail Team (WWAR) as our Customer Service Logistics Manager. Dean will be responsible for managing the logistics of moving grain from from CBH receivable sites through delivery to Port serving as WWAR's face to our customers. Dean will be the primary logistics interface between the Customer and WWAR Operations Group with important interface responsibility with Brookfield, our track provider.

Dean has extensive knowledge in the railway industry having worked in train planning and grain logistics he also has management and maintenance experience.

Dean and his wife Rebecca have recently moved from Northam, WA to Perth City. The Wilsons have a Rottweiler/American Staffy dog named Zac who rules the house and is extremely spoiled. Dean and Rebecca enjoy astronomy and have an 8-inch Dobsonian Telescope trained into space. They also enjoy spending time with family and friends.
