

Watco Transload and Intermodal Services Announcement

Date: May 9, 2011
To: Watco Team
From: Jimmy McClain, WTIS OKC Terminal Manager
Subject: James T. Ragsdale, WTIS OKC Terminal Manager

I am pleased to announce that James T. Ragsdale has accepted the position of Terminal Manager for the Watco Transload and Intermodal Services (WTIS) Oklahoma City, Okla., site. In this position his duties will be to ensure site goals of safety, efficiency, and profitability.

James comes to Watco with a Bachelors Degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix along with 10 years of transportation management experience.

He and his wife April have been married for six years and have two children; 11 year-old son, Kyler and a daughter Chloe who is 16 months old. In his free time James enjoys spending time with family and friends, along with hunting and fishing.

James can be reached at the OKC facility at 405-619-9376 or by e-mail at jragdale@watcocompanies.com.

Please join me in welcoming James to Watco.