

Watco Companies Announcement

Date: June 13, 2011
To: Watco Team
From: Eddie Arredondo, Senior Vice President Human Resources
Subject: Librado E. Gonzalez, Senior Manager Benefits and Total Rewards

I am pleased to announce Librado Gonzales has joined Watco in the position of Senior Manager Benefits and Total Rewards. Librado will be charged with developing a complete Total Rewards (compensation) system that will serve to reward team members based on performance with defined measurement systems. His duties also include ensuring all benefits from service providers meet our expectations and that the proper systems are in place to allow our team members to be serviced by those providers with outstanding customer service.

Prior to joining the Watco Team, Librado worked for the Panamanian Government in Panama since 2009. He received his PhD from La Salle University, Pittsburgh, Pa., a JD from British American University, London, England and MBA from University of Barcelona, Barcelona, Spain.

Librado and his wife, Lesley, have two daughters: Lesley Mireya, 6 and Meredith Daniela, 2. In his spare time Librado enjoys golfing.
